

Product Name: IC Faces Beauty Dream Glow Sheet Mask

Product Description: IC Faces Beauty Sheetmasks is perfect for the individual struggling with dark marks, acne scars and other hyperpigmentation issues. These masks, enriched with brightening ingredients will fade dark marks and hydrate the skin while also soothing and repairing the skin's barrier. These high-quality masks are indeed an excellent way to restore and revitalize the skin.

Launch Date: November 2022

Product Benefits: Our on-the-go sheet masks are infused with the highest quality ingredients to heal sensitive skin and aid in such conditions as eczema, psoriasis, and scarring. Our carefully selected ingredients pair perfectly to brighten the skin, while encouraging the prevention of signs of aging and reduce acne and acne scars.

Technical Details: Our on-the-go sheet masks are infused with the highest quality ingredients including Cica, Peptides, and Niacinamide. Cica which is derived from the Centella Asiatica plant. Cica has anti-inflammatory properties but is most known for its healing, soothing and anti-bacterial properties making it ideal for sensitized skin. Further support and repair of the skin's health with the inclusion of copper peptides and niacinamide will aid in the increase of collagen production and help to improve skin firmness, elasticity and plumpness.

Spa Use: Estheticians apply this mask to their clients face, especially after an aggressive treatment where the skin needs to be calmed. Great for pre OR post nano-needling, post-microdermabrasion, and post-dermaplaning.

What makes this product unique and innovative? The IC Faces Beauty Brand was created by a Licensed Master Esthetician and Beauty Educator and is a cruelty-free, toxin-free, non-Artificial Dye, Black-owned, Woman-owned brand. Our mask was created for end users suffering from sensitized skin issues, such as Post Inflammatory Hyperpigmentation (PIH), Eczema, and scarring. Because this line was made with the most sensitive skin individuals in mind, we consider ourselves an inclusive brand.
